Gem Trees

My name is Betty and I am a Lapidary Artist and Teacher with over 30 years of experience. Also a Rock Hunter, my Love for Rocks, Gems and Minerals have started my Path. My Specialization is making Sculpture Gem Tree of Life. The smallest being approx 3 inches up to about 15 inches being the largest. Most of the trees are one of a kind and not to be made again. Some can be customized. Each tree is made with love by hand, no tools. We are Lapidary Artists, meaning we mine the stones, bring them to the shop, start the process of cleaning the rock and picking the best for the saw. Cutting the stones, polish, drill and finally continue to the Creation.

the Heart of Preparing

*Finding Joy in a Self Reliant Life by Being Prepared for
'Any Old Thing'*

♥ Family ♥ Home ♥ Life ♥

Hi, I'm Heather. I am a mom of 4 wonderful children, wife to a wonderful man and our lives are CRAZY, to say the least. I am a bookkeeper, owner of Six-T Creations and started blogging this year as a way to share my experience in building a self-reliant life. I aim to help families who are struggling to find simplicity in budgeting, life skills, meal planning and preparation and more. But most of all, to find joy along the way. I have found that blogging has been a great way to look for the good in life, help others be the best they can be, and find ways to improve my life.
